

Position Description

Position Title: Counseling Intern-Unpaid Internship

Department: Counseling and Support Services (CASS)

Division: Student Services

Under the general supervision of the Assistant Dean for Student Engagement and Assistant Director of CASS, the Counseling Intern is enrolled as a student in a Master's-level Counselor training program that requires field placement designed to provide the individual with experience in a professional counseling setting.

The Counseling Intern provides a variety of counseling services and other student support services in alignment with the goals and mission of the CASS department. Services to York Technical College students include the following:

1. Personal counseling and crisis intervention services to address issues related to adjustment to college, stress management, marriage and family concerns, mental health challenges, and other similar matters that may serve as barriers to student success;
2. Counseling for students whose Academic Standing is less than Good Standing;
3. Career guidance and assistance with career goal-setting;
4. Initiating support for students with disabilities;
5. Classroom presentations and distribution of printed materials on a variety of health and wellness-related topics during campus events such as the annual Health and Wellness Fair for students of York Technical College;
6. Success coaching to encourage and support academic success through establishing connections to campus resources;
7. Case management services to include connection to relevant resources both on and off campus;
8. Other services designed to support the mission of CASS, Student Services, and York Technical College.
